

Community Development Resource Network Newsletter

Vol. 13 No. 1

JANUARY 2009

A quarterly source of information featuring Santa Ana-based community building initiatives and events of local interest. For more information, visit the Resource Network at www.santa-ana.org/cda/ResourceNetwork1.asp

February 12, 2009 is Earned Income Tax Credit - Community Tax Day at the Boys & Girls Club 950 W. Highland Street from 4 - 7 p.m. The Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) is one of the largest federal credits available to low and moderate income workers. It can provide a refund of up to $4,824 and lifts more children out of poverty than any other federal or state government program. Please refer to the attached EITC flyer or call 888.434.8248 to schedule an appointment for either February 12th or future Community Tax Days scheduled in Santa Ana.

- The 2009 Orange County Black History Cultural Faire is planned for Saturday, February 7, 2009 from 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. This year's theme: The Legacy Never Ends . . . New Vines Grow from Strong Roots. The event includes food, vendors, entertainment, games, a youth village and much more. Location: County of Orange Courthouse Parking Lot – 22 Civic Center Drive, Santa Ana. Contact: Info@thegreenfoundation.net.
- Saturday, February 21st - Art Walk at the Santiago Art District. Live music and DJs set the laid-back vibe as artists and homeowners open their galleries to the public. Fine wines, cheeses, and other delicious refreshments are available in most galleries. Featured art regularly includes: paintings, sculptures, giclee prints, photography and furniture. Galleries open at 7 p.m. and usually run until 10p.m. Ample (free) parking is conveniently located across the street at the Santa Ana Train Depot on the corner of Santa Ana Boulevard and Santiago Street. For more information, visit the website at: www.santiagoardistrict.com

The Community Development Resource Network seeks to strengthen the working relationships between the hundreds of different groups that consider Santa Ana to be their arena.
