R. Crumb's Underground Curated by Todd Hignite

Opening Reception: 7-10 p.m. Saturday, July 11, 2009

July 12 - August 16, 2009: Tuesday to Sunday 11 a.m.-4 p.m. with extended hours Friday & Saturday to 7 p.m. Plus the "First Saturday" of each month galleries are open until 10 p.m.

Grand Central Art Center becomes the only Southern California venue to exhibit the Yerba Buena's Center for the Arts traveling exhibition, R. Crumb's Underground. This exhibition salutes local San Francisco treasure Robert Crumb with an eclectic exhibit of early work, collaborations old and new, and the world premiere of his "spool" drawings. Universally acknowledged as the founder of the underground comic scene, Crumb gained cult popularity for his pioneering Zap Comix and stardom with the Terry Zwigoff documentary, Crumb. Extending far beyond comics, the YBCA traveling exhibit shows how his work has grown in philosophical complexity, and highlights his collaborative work, including intimate confessions produced with wife Aline Kominsky-Crumb.
