SAPD's Most Wanted List Now Available on the Internet

What: The Santa Ana Police Department recently expanded its website, <http://www.santa-ana.org/pd/>, to include a Most Wanted section. In this portion of the website, <http://www.santa-ana.org/pd/mostwanted.asp>, persons of interest and suspects in various crimes are posted in an effort to solicit the public's assistance in solving crimes that might otherwise remain unsolved.

As a reminder, subjects placed on the Most Wanted list may be suspects in gang-related homicides. As such, persons providing information leading to the apprehension of these suspects may be eligible for a reward up to $50,000. More information on the Gang Homicide Reward Program can be found at www.santa-ana.org/pd/documents/GangRewardProgramFlier.pdf.
