International Walk To School Day

What: The City of Santa Ana has been named as one of the youngest cities in the nation, largely in part to the 50,000 school children within the Santa Ana Unified School District. In an effort to promote healthy lifestyle habits and to raise pedestrian safety awareness, the Santa Ana Police Department is participating and promoting the International Walk To School Day. Join the children from Davis Elementary School, along with police officers and motorcycle officers as they walk to school together.

When: Wednesday, October 3, 2007
7:15 a.m. – Walk Begins

Where: Walk will begin at the following corners:

1. 15th Street and Spurgeon Street
2. 16th Street and Spurgeon Street*
3. 16th Street and French Street
4. Washington Street and French Street

*The media is encouraged to meet at location number two

Available to the media: Interview opportunities with the school children and their parents. The PIO will also be available for interviews.
