The Historic Downtown of Santa Ana, CA

A small sample of the historical architecture in downtown Santa Ana.
Old Santa Ana City Hall

Old Santa Ana City Hall was constructed in 1935 at a cost of $126,000, funded by city bonds and a Works Progress Administration (WPA) grant. It was designed by architect W. Horace Austin of Long Beach, who had designed the rather similar Masonic Temple at Sycamore and Fifth Streets a few years earlier. Local contractors Ball and Honer constructed the building. This was the third City Hall to be built on the site, and...
