Any envelope mailed to the applicant during the last six (6) months
Current rent receipts, escrow papers, property tax bill, printed checks, credit card statement, bank statement, or automobile registration.

PLEASE NOTE:

Business address, P.O. Box, or mailing center address is not acceptable proof of residency.

Patron must be present to obtain or renew a library card.

Parent or legal guardian's signature is required on registration form for applicants in or under 8th grade level in school. Parent or legal guardian must sign in the presence of a library staff member.

Property owner must bring in current property tax bill; business owner must bring in a current business certificate.

Individuals employed in Santa Ana must provide verification of employment by providing a current letterhead from employer with date, name of employee, and signature of manager/director.

Shelter/Group Homes

Transients living in shelters/group homes are "guests" in those residences. To be a resident as defined by the library, and to be issued a card, patron must bring proof that he is contributing financially to the house, that is, paying rent, utilities, etc.

Guests in group homes/shelters must provide a current letter head with the date of entry/exit of the facility, name of client, length of stay, and signature of the director.

Persons residing at hotels and motels will be eligible for a library card if they have lived at that address for at least two months. Two months of receipts and identification will be required.
