Outdoor Tips
The following tips are recommended to everyone who visits Santa Ana Parks:
- Bring someone with you: An exercise partner, such as a friend, family member, or dog can be a great source of motivation when walking, jogging, running, or biking.
- Bring something with you: when exercising is an excellent boredom buster!
- Bring what you need: Staying hydrated is very important especially with our outdoors. Bring plenty of water or your favorite sports drink to the park.
- Bring comfortable clothes: pants, shirt, jog, or walk in comfortable clothing. Don't forget to tie your shoes!
- Stretch: Do some warm-up stretches before you exercise and some cool-down stretches when you have finished exercising. Your body will thank you for this!

- Invite your family and friends to Santa Ana Park...

Are you ready? Now that you have prepared yourself for a day at one of Santa Ana's hidden gems, there are 3 things that we must always remember when visiting:

- Have Fun... Get Fit... Be Respectful

Bicycle Rider's Rules
1. Keep your bicycle in good mechanical condition (tires, chain, brakes).
2. Obey all traffic rules and signs - always give proper hand signals.
3. Keep your bike away from busy intersections.
4. Always ride with the traffic - as close as possible to the right side of the road.
5. Be sure the roadway is clear before entering.
6. Always ride single and watch for opening car doors.
7. Most bicycles are built to carry one person - YOU and your bike.
8. If you must ride your bike at night, be sure your headlight and reflectors are in good condition.
9. Select the safest route to your destination and use it. Avoid busy streets and intersections.
10. Yield right of way to pedestrians.
11. Always wear a bicycle helmet.
