

CONDITIONS FOR FILM PERMITTING
IN SANTA ANA
AS OF 5/20/20

- Crew and personnel on location are limited to the fewest number of people needed (up to a maximum of 10 people at any given time). Staggered shifts and/or separated work areas may be required for groups larger than 10.
- All crew and personnel on location must comply with social distancing, face covering and sanitation requirements as listed in their pre-approved “Sanitation and Social Distancing Plan”. This plan must be pre-approved by the Santa Ana Film Permit office and must align with current state guidelines. Current social distancing, sanitation and face covering guidelines can be found here: www.cdph.ca.gov .
- If filming indoors, the location must be (and remain) closed to the public in addition to the two requirements above.
- Safety protocols must be distributed to crew and personnel prior to filming as well as be clearly displayed onsite within staging and/or work areas.
- Be respectful of surrounding merchants, residents and the general public and do not impact operations. Posted or reserved parking may be limited to keep parking available for merchant curbside pick-up operations.
- Permits will be issued on a case by case basis and priority given to permits on behalf of essential businesses.
